

ABOUT

In 2014 I came to Germany together with my family as a Syrian refugee. Since then I've learned German and learned how to code with the Refugees on Rails school and the ReDi-School in Berlin. I have completed one software developer internship so far, and I have a permanent residency in Germany and am available to start working immediately.

SUMMARY

Reliable, self-motivated systems analyst with junior software development skills

- ✓ Seeking a back-end software development role in an international company
- ✓ Completed 3-month software development internship in Germany (REC Rechallenge)
- ✓ Available to start work immediately
- ✓ Syrian citizenship, German permanent residence (approved asylum)

Berlin, Deutschland

6/2016 -
present

REC Rechallenge

Completed three-month internship in mobile app development

- Worked with Meteor-React, Materialise css
- Developed FrontEnd for a Mobile project application

Berlin, Deutschland

2/2016 -
present

ReDI School & Refugees on Rails

Completed Software development training in:

- Ruby on Rails
- HTML/CSS/MaterializeCss
- JavaScript/JQuery/React jsx

Berlin, Deutschland

Deutsch Sprachkurse

Attended classes & obtained certification for level A through B1+ German

Damascus, Syria 2001-2013

Abu-Issa Manufacturing

Led teams of 15 workers and acted as branch manager of a family food manufacturing plant (poultry). Sole responsibility for:

- financial reporting.
- team performance oversight.

Damascus, Syria 1999-2001

Diploma, System Analysis

Two-year course of applied study with the following courses completed:

- System Analysis.
- MCSE